Soak Up The Sun In San Diego

With longer days and warmer nights just around the corner, now is the perfect time to start planning your upcoming events. Invigorate an ordinary retreat, meeting or company function by getting out of the office. Consider planning the following events that are ideal for the spring and summer months.

Hornblower Cruises and Events

Company Picnics – Get outside and offer your employees some fun in the sun! A full-service catering company can supply everything for your picnic including creative menus, beverages, permits, serving staff, rentals and entertainment. They can assist with a menu and theme that fits your corporate culture and budget. Whether it's a beach barbecue, Hawaiian luau or simply having dishes that show-off San Diego's culinary delights, caterers can add that special touch to make your event stand out.

Retreats & Board Meetings – Get out of the office and take your team offsite where their creativity can shine. Now is the perfect time of year to do some spring cleaning; out with old ideas and in with the new.

Activities & Teambuilding – Building camaraderie and synergy within your company is an essential part of developing a productive business environment. Treat your staff to a fun activity such as a sporting event, bowling, a yacht excursion or golf tournament. Other ideas include cooking classes, teambuilding instruction or volunteering to support a charitable cause.

Outdoor Events – Take advantage of the beautiful Southern California weather and host your upcoming events outside. Pick a unique and refreshing venue that offers a view of the water, the city skyline or provides a great outdoor space that can bring sparkle to your next client appreciation event, theme party or product launch. San Diego offers premier venues that can cultivate creativity and inspiration.

Sales Meetings & Seminars – If you are planning a workshop or training seminar, consider a venue that features a full theater with audio/visual capabilities.

Many of these larger locations also have several rooms in a variety of dimensions that can accommodate intimate to large groups. Utilize the flexible space options by hosting your training session in one part of the venue followed by break-out sessions or a reception in a distinct space. This will add variety and movement to your event.

Exotic dining on enchanting Shelter Island awaits you. The Bali Hai was erected in 1953. Fifty-five years later, the first and most famous tiki temple in Southern California continues to offer diners an escape to the islands with the culture and flavors of the South Pacific in true tiki fashion.

The mouthwatering menu is a creative blend of Polynesian, Hawaiian and Asian cuisine. Savor firecracker-seared Ahi with a spicy coriander and pepper rub while watching sailboats drift around the San Diego Bay. The Kimo's Baby Back Ribs marinated in a five-spice hoisin barbecue sauce and glazed with a coconut honey sauce will tantalize your taste buds and have you asking for an extra napkin.

The panoramic view of the city skyline is breathtaking. The bayside patio is the perfect venue for your wedding or special event and you can even dock your boat at the Bali Hai and join us for lunch, dinner or Sunday brunch.
