Indulge yourself in San Diego's most grandiose and award-winning bar and nightclub. Located in the hip historic Gaslamp Quarter, The Bitter End is famous for her Black Martini, rich ambiance, service excellence and sophisticated décor that includes an elegant law library, polished hardwood floors, collectors' antiques and artwork, fireplaces, lush leather couches and three ostentatious bars.

The Bitter End occupies one of downtown's most historical buildings built in 1874 and carries all the stimulation and excitement of a vibrant venue with classic elegance. With 6,500 square feet, The Bitter End can accommodate up to 400 people and boasts three unique levels including the Main Bar with billiards, the Underground dance club and an elegant VIP Upstairs Lounge.

Main Bar (capacity: 110)

Treat your taste buds with a Black Martini at the beautiful 40-foot Mahogany bar. In the Main Bar, enjoy a game of billiards, watch the game on one of 7 plasma screens and feast your eyes on fascinating passersby at the busiest corner in the Gaslamp Quarter.

VIP Upstairs Lounge (capacity: 112)

Complete with two fireplaces, a lush law library, a custom green marble bar and polished hardwood floors, your eyes will linger on Miro, Peter Max and other collectors' art throughout the rich leather lounge. The Lounge has a 100" screen and projector perfect for company meetings. The intimate and indulgent ambiance makes the Upstairs Lounge the most popular level for private celebrations.

The Underground (capacity: 178)

The Underground is a 2,000 square-foot, high-energy dance club equipped with a solid sound and lighting system, stage for live entertainment, dance floor and a captivating under lit onyx bar.

The Bitter End provides additional services for your event needs, including: audio visual, floral arrangements, linens, party favors and custom cakes.

In addition to its reputation as San Diego's Quintessential Best Bar, The Bitter End offers the finest California coastal cuisine and chef-inspired international classics. Superior staffing and servicing of events at The Bitter End has earned a reputation of excellence for more than a decade and the satisfaction of creating amazing events, long-remembered.
